You will find that by surrounding yourself with the right support, and being around like-minded people that amazing things are going to happen.

This years theme for the Sparkle On-Con is "Adaptability" and by the end of this weekend, you will be walking away with real actionable steps you can implement into your life and business for real growth and ways to adapt to the changing world that we are living in now!

Meet The Experts

Sally Sparks-Cousins

Sally Sparks-Cousins the founder of the Sparkle Class Academy is on a mission to empower people to find their “Inner Sparkle” zone of genius or passion and then to use it to build a business that can be tailored around their lifestyles.

Working mostly with current or want to be coaches, consultants, healers and service-based providers who want to create membership programs and courses.

She has an uncanny ability to remove the tech overwhelm for her clients when it comes to getting automated with their sales & marketing strategies.

... so they can focus on what they are good at, and knowing with confidence that they have a consistent flow of leads knocking at their door because their automation is working for them in the background.

Sally helps her clients literally step by step, and click by click to set up their automation systems, using just 3 simple programs - even when they don’t understand how it works - it just does!

She wants her clients to EARN while you LEARN.

... so that they can fill their calendar with prospects eager to speak to them.

That way her clients can focus on doing what they are good at, which is working in their own zone of genius or as Sally like to call it “your inner sparkle”

Sally’s inner sparkle is sales and marketing automation and also reading the sexy numbers to ensure their marking automation is working and converting well.

Sally loves working in her zone of genius so her clients can focus on serving and helping their clients using your own zone of genius.

Sally has a strong belief that to inspire she needs to lead by example and proves that by rolling up her sleeves and ‘getting s#%t done!’ right alongside her clients - Literally FACE TO FACE in a ZOOM ROOM, most days of the week.

Sally wants to break the mould when it comes to supporting her clients by building a community of coaches, consultants, healers and course creators who are all using the same software to grow and scale their business so that no student gets left behind.

The Sparkle Community is an ecosystem of entrepreneurs working together daily inside of a Virtual Office Space LIVE, so someone is always there to chat too and get help from, even if Sally is not around.

The motto of the Sparkle Class Academy is “We work better together than we do alone”.

My life has gone from being completely off the rails: Divorce, Domestic violence relationships, addictions, bullying, depression, anxiety, overweight & suicidal - to now living a life full of colour and taking a chance at everything that comes my way!

Do you ever feel you are stuck in a mess – but yearn for success? Maybe you feel trapped in a toxic work environment or relationship? Are using drugs or alcohol as a prop? Nothing has changed, we still live on earth, but we need to start connecting and doing more to have fun."

Meet The Experts

Jenny Williams

Hi, I am Jenny Williams and I am the founder of the Self-Acceptance Academy and through my one-on-one coaching, I help people like you to start believing in yourself, so you can live your dream and reconnect with your awesome!

And If you are reading this and wondering... is that all really possible?

Well, here is how it all started for me...

I started a personal quest, to find out how to stop doubting myself, how to stop the nasty voice in my head and to learn how to live an awesome life.

I read every book I could find on personal development, searched for every mentor I could learn from and signed up for every training I could attend. For the very first time, I really started to invest in myself.

When I began clearing my childhood traumas using tapping, partly from working with other coaches and partly from working on it by myself. I also worked on changing how I responded to my inner voice. And once I'd made progress in transforming myself, I started helping others. I took it into my hands to turn things around and begin to create an extraordinary life for myself as I coached others on how to do that for themselves.

As my friends and family started seeing the difference in me, the changes that I made in my life,... they started asking me how I did it. That's when I knew I had to share this with more people...

And that's how my Self-Acceptance Academy came about.

Expert Presenters

Jay Staniforth

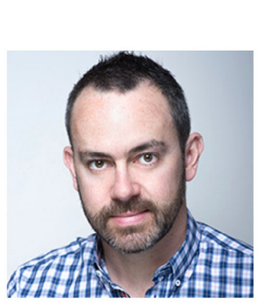
Having suffered with social anxiety in his early years, Jay went to University to study Psychology so that he could understand why it was that he felt this way. Having graduated, and gone through some personal realisations, he then spent over 10 years in marketing helping stagnant businesses to go from struggling to thriving – such as taking a company from making an annual loss, to turning £3.5m in under 5 years.

Having personally experienced the flaws and negative impact that a corporate career can have on a persons mental-wellbeing, Jay left the corporate world to focus on his mission and passion for helping people to create a life and business doing something they love that had a positive impact on the lives of others.

It is then that he co-founded Expert Unleashed, a marketing business that helps coaches and course creators to sell their services online using brand strategy and sales funnels.

The company has seen great success within a range of coaching and course niches, such as taking a wealth creation coaching business to over £1m in turnover in less than 2 years.

Jay is the author of the book The Anxious Entrepreneur, has a passion for animals – especially dogs – constantly craves food, begrudgingly enjoys the gym, hates coffee but loves hot chocolate, and is a personal development addict.



Jason Buckner

Jason Buckner is the secret weapon desperate businesses call in to "clean up the mess." And he loves it. Where most people would run away, Jason is quick to roll up his sleeves and find the holes and fix them. In cleaning up one mess he discovered a secret to getting more sales form webinars. First it was just 1 step, that brought in more sales. Then he discovered another that doubled the sales, then a final secret that can more than triple your sales. Wouldn't you want an insurance policy to making sure that every dollar spent on marketing your webinar, gets the most conversions you possibly can. It's so effective he's been teaching the secret on stages around the world. Australia, United Kingdom, Thailand and the USA.

Christina Lenkowski

Christina Lenkowski is a forward-thinking publicity strategist and educator for online course creators, service providers and coaches looking to expand their credibility, bring in new customers and go from "best-kept secret" to "go-to expert" in their industries.

During her 13 years of PR agency and consulting work, she helped clients earn spots in print publications like Martha Stewart Living, Sunset, Reader's Digest, and Big Life, and online coverage in MSN.com and TravelChannel.com, among others.

Christina herself has been featured on websites like Medium.com and CEOHacks.com. She's been a guest on podcasts, including Hustle Like a Mother, The Mompreneur Experience, Destination Marketing Podcast and Team Money, and helped her clients get booked on many others.

She has spoken on stages at conferences throughout the Pacific Northwest and Midwest. Christina lives in Boise, Idaho, USA, with her husband and daughter.
